

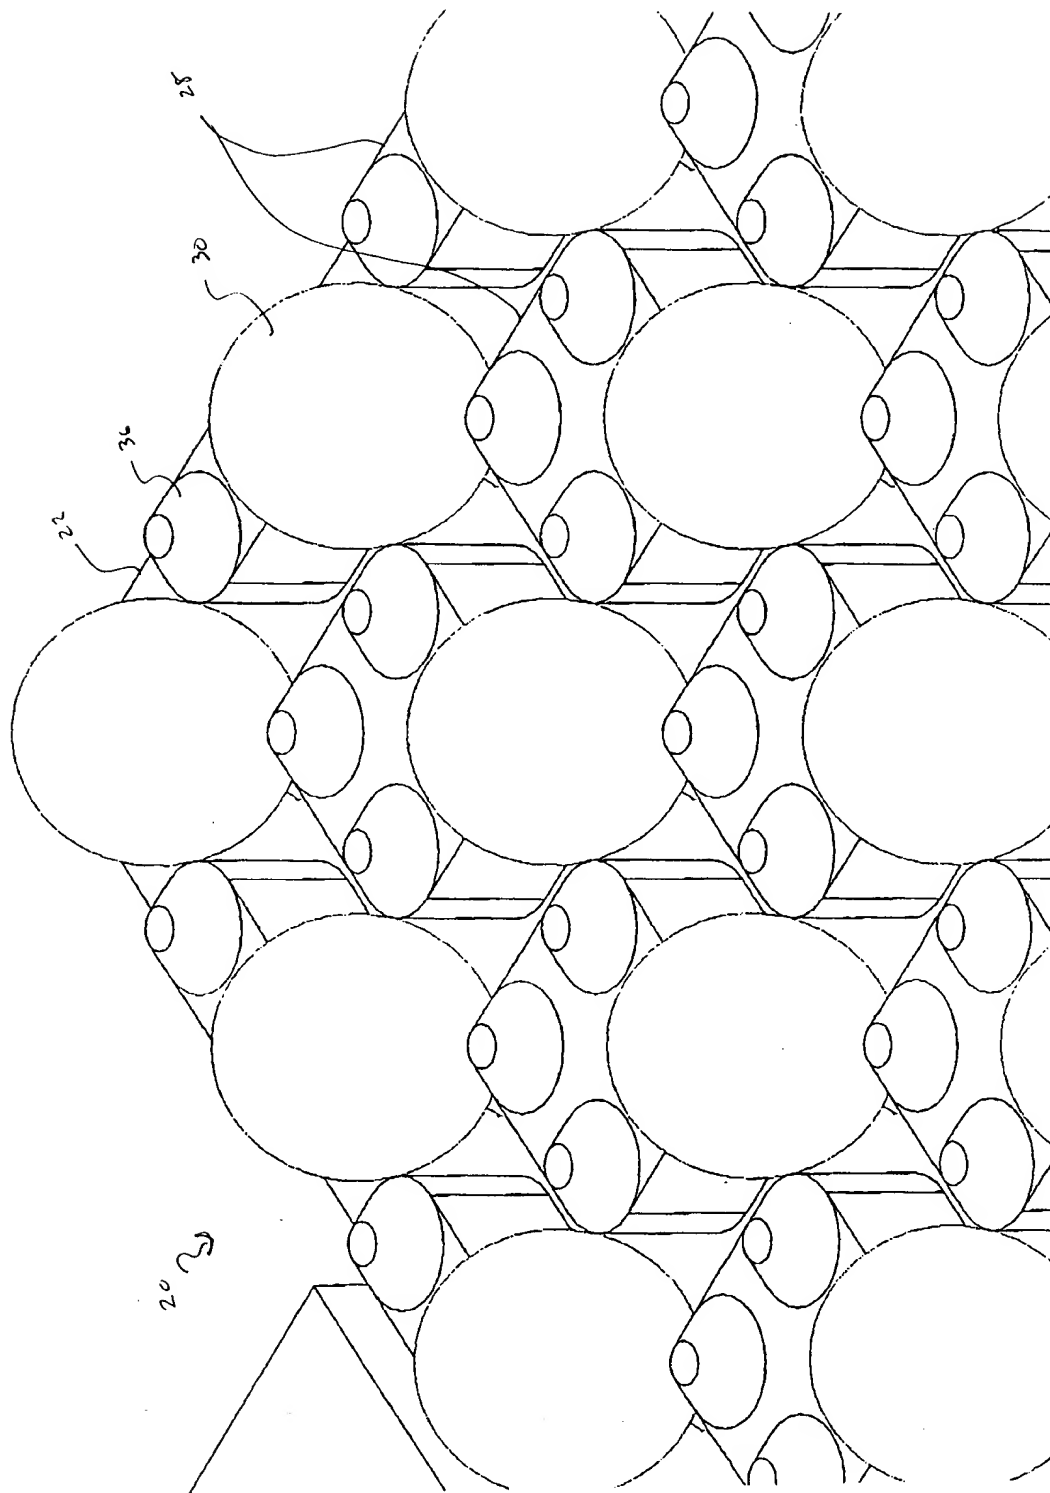

FIG. 1

FIG. 2 is a schematic diagram of a network of interconnected nodes and links, showing a repeating pattern of large circular nodes (20) and smaller oval nodes (22) connected by lines (24). The diagram illustrates a hexagonal lattice structure where each large node is surrounded by six smaller nodes, and each smaller node is connected to three larger nodes. The nodes are arranged in a staggered grid pattern.

FIG. 2

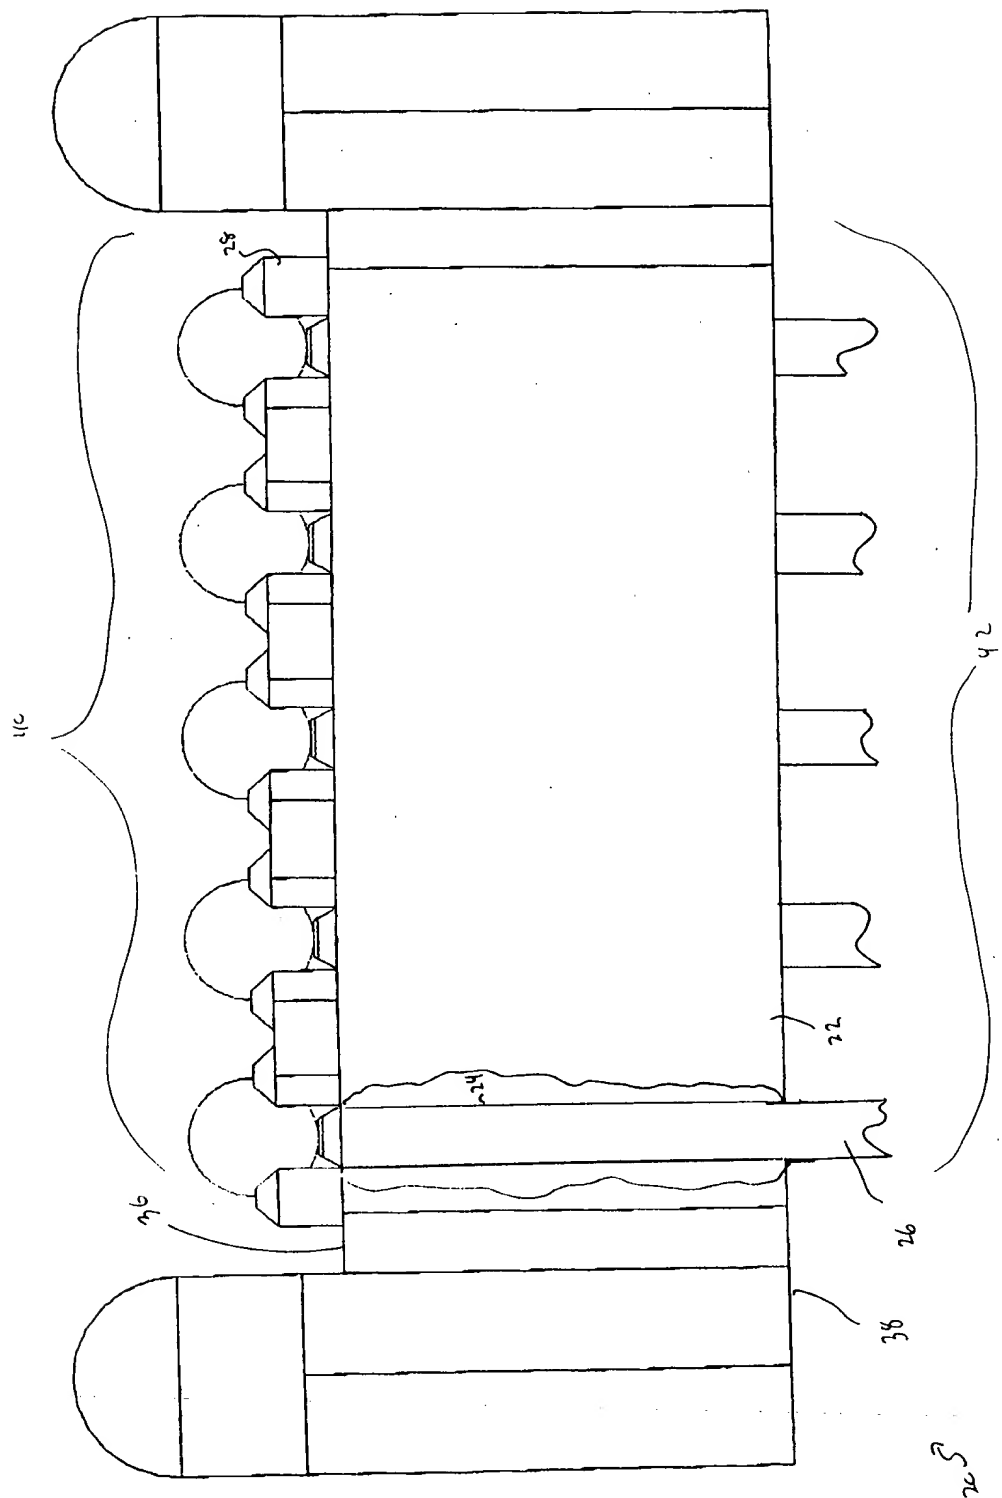

FIG. 3

FIG. 4

